American Millinery

For the Spring and Summer Season of Nineteen Hundred and Eight

Particular attention is called to the unusual showing of Tailored Hats for Early Spring Wear.

BY the calendar, spring will arrive Sunday next, but in this climate one must wear coats and furs a while longer. So the first spring touch is given the toilet by the New Spring Hat. Tailored or Street Hats are the ones that usually claim first attention. In our special showing of Spring Millinery, which is now in progress, Tailored Hats of horse hair, hemp, and fancy braids, Rajah silk, sailors, dark clip hats, &c., all suitable for immediate wear, are displayed in the latest and most chic styles. You are invited to inspect these new models.

Gen. and Mrs. Joseph Prentice Sanger announce the engagement of their daughter, Miss Edith Kent Sanger, to Mr. James Mandeville Carlisle, of Washington.

The engagement, which was not a surprise to any one, was announced last night at a dinner given at the Chevy Chase Club by Capt. Hudson Poole, U. S. A., and Mrs. Poole, to celebrate the promotion of the former to his present rank.

Miss Sanger is one of the most popular and attractive girls in Washington society. She was educated at Catonsville, Md., and afterward went to Germany, and studied music in Dresden. She is a musician, is well-read, and speaks German and French fluently. She is also fond of outdoor life, and has won a name for herself as a tennis player. For two seasons she has held the tennis championship at the Chevy Chase contests.

She is also said by some to be the best dancer in Washington. Miss Sanger is slender and lithe in build, with dark hair and blue eyes, and carries herself well. She was introduced here some years ago and has been a favorite socially.

For years, she and Mr. Carlisle have been friends. His sister, Miss Mary Carlisle, is an intimate friend of Miss Sanger. Last spring, Mr. Carlisle's mother, Mrs. Calderon Carlisle, chaperoned a party to Palm Beach, of which her son and Miss Sanger were members.

Miss Sanger gave a dinner for Miss Mary Carlisle before she went abroad this fall to spend the winter in Athens with her aunt, the wife of the United States Minister to Greece.

Mr. Carlisle is a Yale graduate, and is now engaged in the practice of law here. He is also popular socially, and is one of the committee of the Bachelors, the smart Washington dancing club. Like his fiancée he is athletic in tastes, and a fine tennis player. He rides a great deal, and was on the varsity football team at Yale.

He is good-looking, rather tall, with light-brown hair and blue eyes. Maj. Gen. William P. Duval and Mrs. Duval entertained at dinner last night Mr. and Mrs. Louis M. Marie, of Philadelphia; Mr. and Mrs. Crowninshield, Dr. and Mrs. Pettus, Miss Hanger, Miss Mattie, Representative McKinley, and Capt. Gilmore, U. S. A.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Hatch gave a dinner last night at Stoneleigh Court for Mr. and Mrs. David Rice, of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Johnston, who have as their house guests Mr. and Mrs. John Spencer and Mrs. Arthur Biddle, of Philadelphia, entertained at dinner last night complimentary to them.

Dr. and Mrs. Needham will be at home to the faculties of the George Washington University this evening at 9 o'clock.

Mrs. Charles Grayson Dulin entertained at luncheon yesterday complimentary to Mrs. Quesada, wife of the Cuban Minister. Invited to meet her were Mrs. M. Cortes, wife of the Colombian Minister; Mrs. Thomas H. Carter, Mrs. Bankhead, Mrs. McLeary, Mrs. Beale Howard, Mrs. Clifford Walton, Mrs. Jules Guthridge, and Thomas M. Gale.

Former Senator and Mrs. Dryden were hosts at dinner last evening, entertaining Justice and Mrs. Brewer, Senator and Mrs. Burrows, Senator and Mrs. Hopkins, the Assistant Secretary of the Navy and Mrs. Newberry, Mrs. Van Vechten Olcott, Surgeon Gen. and Mrs. Rixey, Gen. and Mrs. Sharpe, Paymaster Gen. Kelly, Justice and Mrs. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John W. Foster, Mrs. Daniel Manning, Mr. and Mrs. Hornblower, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington Jackson, and Mr. and Mrs. Kizer.

Miss Cannon was the guest complimentary to whom Mrs. James Sherman, wife of Representative Sherman, entertained at luncheon yesterday, at the New Willard. The guests assembled at a round table in the red dining-room of the hotel, which was prettily decorated with cut flowers and palms, and on the table were baskets of lilacs and Enchantress carnations. Invited to meet Miss Cannon were Mrs. Straus, wife of the Secretary of Commerce and Labor; Mrs. Sereno E. Payne.

Mrs. E. T. Hammond will be at home at the Rochambeau this afternoon from 4 to 6. Miss Florence Sheedy, of Denver, Colo., and Miss Ethel Ryan, of New York, will reach Washington this morning, and will be the guests of Mrs. Hammond.

Mrs. Ralph D. Tobien entertained the officials of the engineer department of the Southern Railway at dinner last evening. Among the guests were Hugo W. Hesselbach, Bernard Herman, and Geoffrey Creyke.

Mrs. Frank A. Gardner announces the engagement of her daughter Elise to Allan P. Hume, son of the late Frank Hume, of Washington. Miss Gardner is spending the winter with her mother in Boston. Her elder sister was married last summer to J. Maury Dove, Jr. Miss Gardner's father, Dr. Frank A. Gardner, was physician to the family of the late President Harrison during his residence in Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred S. Lincoln, of the Kenesaw, left Friday for an extended trip through the South, attending the Mardi Gras at New Orleans and visiting Cuba before returning.

Former State Senator Frederick W. Mott, of St. Louis, Mo., has been in the city for several days attending to business in connection with Mr. Louis P. Shoemaker, who is executor under the will of the former's brother, Mr. George W. Mott, who was for many years a business man of Washington.

Mrs. George H. Brown and the Misses Brown will not be at home Saturday, on account of illness in the family.

FINDINGS IN COURT-MARTIAL.

War Department Has Result of the Trial of Lieut. Sturges.

The record and findings in the court-martial case of First Lieut. Dexter Sturges, Thirteenth Cavalry, who was tried recently at Fort Sheridan, Ill., have been received at the War Department. Lieut. Sturges was tried for financial irregularities. He entered the volunteer army in May, 1898, as a private in Company B, of the Third New York Infantry, and later in the same year, served in the 204 New York Infantry, as a first lieutenant. He was honorably mustered out in March, 1899, and re-engaged the Twenty-seventh United States Volunteer Infantry as first lieutenant, serving until 1901. He became a first lieutenant in the Thirteenth Cavalry in the regular establishment in February, 1901, and has served with that organization since that date.
